

2025 Annual Juried Art Exhibition.
Now You See Me: Self-Portraits by Wisconsin Artists
May 10th – August 3rd, 2025

Exhibition Prospectus

Exhibition Overview: Self-portraiture is a centuries old artistic practice of reflection and contemplation, yielding insight into both the appearance and the essence of the artist – presenting a representation not only of how they see themselves, but as they want to be seen. Cedarburg Art Museum is seeking artists to join this historical practice and present us with a portrait of themselves in their desired style and medium.

Artwork Guidelines:

- One entry per Wisconsin artist is to be submitted online at cedarburgartmuseum.org/CallForArt in the month of March 2025.
- Online entry requires the artist to submit one digital image of their artwork with a brief statement, 75 words or less. Image files should be in .jpg or .png format and be named “lastname_title.jpg”.
- Original fine art not previously publicly displayed within a 60-mile radius of Cedarburg. All mediums are welcome excluding video and performance.
- Framed/finished artwork is to be no larger than 24in in any dimension.
- Accepted 2-D works must be presented ready for installation with painted or framed edges and fitted with hanging wire or D-ring. Sawtooth hangers are not acceptable. Accepted 3-D work must stand on its own if not mounted to a base.
- Artists are given the option to sell exhibited work during the exhibition, Cedarburg Art Museum retains a 35% commission.

Eligibility: Open to all Wisconsin residents 18 years and older who create works of original concept, design, and execution. A reproduction of an artist’s own original work is not acceptable.

Juror: Dr. Samuel Watson III is currently the Art Historian at University of Wisconsin – Green Bay. Dr. Watson received his BA in Art History from Virginia Commonwealth University; his MA in Native American Art History at the University of New Mexico; and received his Ph.D. in American Art History from the University of Kansas.

Awards: $1,000 in awards will be given to Best of Show, Second and Third place, and three Honorable Mentions. The juror will use criteria of: Fitting to Theme, Originality, and Expertise with Medium to decide accepted artists and award recipients.
